

Bon Appétit Kids

For the month of February, Bon Appétit Kids will be offering a cooking class making cupcakes. We will be baking and decorating them ourselves using icing bags and different types of sprinkles and colors. We will also be doing different flavors.

This will be a class of taste and treat so they will be bringing home a sample for the family. You will need to send a lunch for them to eat while our cupcakes are baking. This class will be offered on Monday, February 13th and Tuesday, February 14th. This class will be from 12 noon to 1:30 pm.

When we finish cooking, eating, and cleaning up, we will go to the playroom for pick up. If you have a child that goes to after school care, please let me know. The class will be $20.00 cash and is due at sign up. Thank you so much!
